IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FRIENDS of MCINNIS CANYONS NCA Jump-Starts 2008 with Social MIXER

January 7, 2008, Grand Junction, CO

Friends of McInnis Canyons NCA is hosting a social mixer and membership drive at 6pm, January 29, 2008, at The Hot Tomato Café in Fruita. We'll be unveiling some of our exciting future activities. Special guests Paul Peck and Matt McGrath from the BLM's McInnis Canyons NCA management team will provide important information regarding the NCA's active projects. Live music, free appetizers, drink discounts, and door prizes are provided courtesy of The Friends of McInnis Canyons and The Hot Tomato Café.

Friends of McInnis Canyons invites all FMC members, their friends, family, and McInnis Canyons NCA users to attend this event. We welcome campers, hikers, cyclists, equestrians, river-rafters, OHV users, wildlife-watchers, tamarisk eradicators, rock-art admirers, artists, dinosaur enthusiasts, and others who appreciate the NCA.

ABOUT Friends of McInnis Canyons NCA: The Friends of McInnis Canyons NCA is committed to enhancing personal and community stewardship of natural, recreational, cultural, and heritage resources on public lands encompassing the McInnis Canyons National Conservation Area. The organization was incorporated as a Colorado non-profit corporation in 2005, and holds the unique distinction of creating the only dedicated partnership between private individuals and the federally managed McInnis Canyons National Conservation Area.
